elvinthedon set to release new single 'no love!'

Ghanaian artist and songwriter elvinthedon is set to release his new single, 'no love!', on 25th September 2026.

Produced by Ayomz, Jelle Windstand, and Max Ids de Haan, the song comes from a very personal place. It is about giving your all to the people you love, constantly trying to prove that you care, and eventually realizing that you have given so much that there is barely anything left for yourself.

The song opens with:

"The moon watched me bleed loyalty into a cup that was never meant to hold it."

That line sets the mood for the rest of the record. There is a lot of disappointment in 'no love!', but there is also acceptance. Instead of continuing to explain himself or convince people of what he has done for them, elvinthedon chooses to walk away with the lessons.

The hook brings that feeling home:

*"So lately, I be asking for no love,
Proving that you're loyal, getting so tough.
Giving what I can and losing all my self-worth."*

For elvinthedon, the song is not simply about romantic love. It touches on friendships, loyalty, expectations, and the pressure to always be there for everyone else. Sometimes, doing everything you can still doesn't make people see your worth.

The second verse gets even more personal, touching on the things he kept inside and struggled to talk about:

"I couldn't talk to be sane, so I hid them in the stories that I wrote."

That became an important part of making the song. What couldn't always be said out loud found its way into the music.

At its heart, 'no love!' is about being tired of proving yourself. It is about carrying pain, giving too much, and finally understanding that protecting your own peace and self-worth matters too. The song doesn't pretend that walking away makes everything disappear. It simply captures that moment when you realize you've reached your limit.

ABOUT elvinthedon

elvinthedon is a songwriter and performer who uses music to tell honest stories about life, relationships, pain, and personal experiences.

His writing often comes from places that are difficult to explain in conversation. Through music, he turns those experiences into stories that other people can hear themselves in.

With 'no love!', elvinthedon opens up about loyalty, emotional exhaustion, and the point where giving to others begins to come at the cost of yourself.

'no love!' arrives on 25 September 2026.
